

MATRIX COLLABORATIVE EMAIL FOR SHIPPING

Matrix Platform is designed to improve productivity and collaborative working across departments and teams.

Transform your communication with the Matrix collaborative email platform. Matrix is trusted across the shipping eco-system by users including fleet managers, owners, operators and charterers. The platform streamlines communication, optimizes teamwork and proactively manages the volume and complexity of emails – helping user to make decisions faster.

Collaborative Working

Easy to set up rules can be applied to incoming and outgoing messages ensuring that the right work groups and individuals 'view' messages – keeping vital data in front of the right people. It's easy to identify who is working on a specific message, and when they have completed the task; ensuring that messages are always picked up and actively managed.

Group Addressbook

Smart indexing and a speedy auto-fill function helps you search and maintain your contacts and associated notes quickly.

Microsoft Outlook Integration

Matrix can integrate with Outlook enabling you to copy messages and contacts between both systems.

Proactive Message Filtering

The system proactively alerts you to emails based on your chosen keyword. Users can prioritise vital revenue generating commercial messages.

All World Languages

Matrix data storage is completely based on Unicode characters enabling all world languages and character alphabets to be used.

Fast and Powerful Search

Fully customizable and intuitive search and retrieval options, enabling fast and extensive data interrogation. Users can perform both keyword searches and detailed, in-depth searches, ensuring quick access to the information they need.

Remote Collaboration

With 'MatrixGO' users can access messages while on the move. All messages marked as read on your smartphone/tablet will appear as read on the Matrix client as well.

Sophisticated Auto-filing

All incoming and outgoing messages and data files such as word documents, PDF and spreadsheets are automatically filed.

Case Studies and Success Stories

Matrix collaborative email is used by owners and managers including:

Integration

Matrix is designed to extend and integrate with third party and bespoke software including SAP.
